

Introducing Justin Kauflin
Justin Kauflin Music 2010
Debut, self-produced album

Jersey Jazz: "With Introducing, Kauflin has immediately established himself as a stellar jazz player, composer, leader and producer. It is rare for a young musician to produce an album that displays the kind of music maturity in evidence here. He has a touch and imagination that is immensely appealing..." by Joe Lang

All About Jazz: "The young pianist has a touch that can only be characterized as 'sparkling', and he takes a rhythmic approach that pushes boundaries yet remains wholly coherent and accessible at all times" by Dan Bilawsky

TReehouse Magazine: "...Introducing is a testament to his remarkable artistry, wisdom and faith. His sense of faith in himself, the power of music, as well as in God shines through on every track. So does his deep sense of humility and abundant passion for life" by Tom Robotham

Virginian Pilot: "Musically speaking, 20-something jazz pianist Kauflin is an old soul...It's a fine showcase of Kauflin's impressive musicianship in a variety of styles...and testimony to his composing and producing talents...by Marvin Leon Lake

PERSONNEL

Musicians:

Justin Kauflin, piano
Billy Williams, drums
Phil Kuehn, bass
Etan Haziza, guitar
Tim Green, alto sax

Track List:

1. The Covenant (Billy Williams)
2. Exodus (Justin Kauflin)
3. Delfeayo's Dilemma (Wynton Marsalis)
4. A Day in the Life (McCartney/Lennon)
5. Three for Glasper (Justin Kauflin)
6. Return Trip (Mulgrew Miller)
7. Be Thou My Vision (Traditional)
8. Lucid Thoughts (Justin Kauflin)
9. Abide with Me (Traditional)